Proclaim the Good News Planner: Bonnie
December 10, 1017
Second Sunday of Advent

Meditation Thought: Today we light the candle of peace and reflect on the need for peace in our lives. Peace restores balance, reconciles us with each other, and draws us closer to you. Let us seek peace, not just for ourselves, but for others---those in war-torn countries, those who live in poverty, those who are consumed with anger and fear, those who feel emptiness and sadness. Come, come, Emanuel, and live in our hearts today. May we sense your peace and seek ways to be peacemakers each day.
