

Meditation Thought; The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge. You may enter their holy place with confidence, but not with carelessness. We come into God's presence by the grace of His Son. The most essential and appropriate response to grace is gratitude, and gratitude is never casual. The greater the grace, the greater the gratitude and reverence.

The Face of Hunger (Statement, read by Presider)

The purpose of the World Hunger and Tangible Love grants is to encourage congregations and mission centers to consider ministries and projects that address the needs of those enmeshed in poverty, hunger, and injustice. Seed from World Hunger and Tangible Love is shared through grants that will provide a basis for long-term sustainable ministries. These funds are made by the generous contributions from churchmembers and friends to the Abolish Poverty, End Suffering initiative.
